NOTE: Within the topic of "railroads" book titles themselves are not necessarily the best description to use for cataloging. The value of books varies greatly depending on condition and that determination is subjective. New Books are worth much more. I have attempted to "grade" these books as "N"- New, "G"- Good, "F"- Fair, or "P"- Poor. The best reference for value is to reference the ISBN (International Standard Book Number). If more than one copy is available all are listed separately.
